

THE GEORGIA FARMERS.

THEIR COMING VISIT TO THE FARMS OF OHIO.

The Schedule of the Trip Announced—The Farmers of Ohio Making Great Preparations for the Georgians.

AMERICAN, Ga., August 26.—[Special.]—Major W. L. Glessner, in charge of the excursion, has just returned from the Central through Ohio, has about completed his arrangements. The excursion will start from Atlanta next Saturday, the 31st, at 1:35 p. m. The party will be composed of the following representatives:

Hon. W. J. Norther, president of the State Agricultural Society, Secretary of the State Agricultural Society, President of the State Alliance, Livingston.

R. A. Nisbet, secretary State Agricultural Society, Macon.

W. H. Kemp, Swainboro; John R. Cooper, Okeechobee; A. O. Barry, Cuthbert; Thomas E. Blackshear, Thomasville; J. B. James, Fort Valley; J. L. Anderson, Hawkinsville; C. L. Messer, Turin; W. R. Gorman, Geneva; W. L. Peck, Conyers; Samuel Barron, Round Oak; J. O. Waddell, Cedartown; Felix Corput, Cave Spring; L. H. O. Martin, Elberton; H. H. Pennington, Woodstock; J. A. Clout, Buford; James Barrett, Augusta; M. C. Fulton, Thompson.

The party will be supplied with one of the Central's handsome new sleepers, which they will occupy during the entire trip.

THE SCHEDULE ARRANGED for the trip is as follows:

Leave Atlanta 1:35 p. m., Saturday, August 31, via Western and Atlantic and Cincinnati Southern.

Arrive Cincinnati, Sunday, September 1, at 6:40 a. m.

Arrive at Columbus 1:10 p. m.

Spending remainder of Tuesday and Wednesday and Thursday, in visiting Ohio state fair and experimental farm.

Leave Columbus on Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati and Indianapolis road, Friday, September 6, at 11:35 a. m.

Arrive Wellington at 1:45 p. m.

Spending the day and night Saturday in visiting dairy farms and creameries.

Leave Wellington on Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati and Indianapolis road, Saturday, September 7, at 8:32 a. m.

Arrive at Cleveland at 9:50 p. m.

Spend Sunday in Cleveland.

Leave Cleveland, Monday, September 9, on Lake Shore and Michigan Southern, at 10:52 a. m.

Arrive at Sandusky 12:30 p. m.

Spend remainder of Monday and Tuesday in visiting vineyards and fruit farms, with probably an excursion to Kelly's Island.

Leave Sandusky over L. S. and M. S., Tuesday, September 10th, at 5:43 p. m.

Arrive at Toledo 7:45 p. m.

Spend Wednesday at Toledo, visiting Tri-State fair of Ohio, Indiana and Michigan.

Leave Toledo, over Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton road, Wednesday, September 11th, at 11:25 p. m.

Arrive Dayton, Thursday, September 12th, at 4:45 a. m.

Spend Thursday and Friday in Dayton, visiting stock and fruit farms.

As showing the preparations that are being made to receive the party at the various points which they will visit, we clip the following from a report given by the Dayton, Ohio, Journal of a large and enthusiastic meeting of the farmers of that section:

John Jackson and Quinn Coover, of Butler township, notified the club that a carload of farmers, two from each congressional district of Georgia, will visit Ohio next month, accompanied by Major W. L. Glessner, commissioner of the bureau of immigration of the Central railroad of Georgia, and that they desire to visit Dayton and attend the next meeting of the Montgomery County Farmers' club.

President Ohmer received a letter from Major Glessner saying that Mr. Bonham, secretary of the Ohio board of agriculture, suggests that the party stop at Dayton to examine stock, dairy and fruit farms, products, etc.

The club at once unanimously voted to arrange for proper reception of this party of visitors, and the following excellent committee was appointed to have charge of the whole affair: George L. Bonner, chairman, A. T. Wilt, J. Q. A. Coover, John Jackson, N. Ohmer, V. E. Wampler and G. W. Kershner.

There is a great deal of responsibility placed upon this committee, and every member is expected to attend its first meeting in the Farmers' association rooms in Odd Fellows temple, this city, Saturday, August 31.

The next farmers' club meeting will be held on Quinn Coover's farm, in Butler township, north of Spankton, Saturday, September 14—don't mistake or forget the date, for it is one week earlier in the month than usual, and only four weeks off.

The Georgians will be there that day, and a special programme will be arranged to comply with their desire to see and learn of the agricultural and stock products of the Miami valley.

The farmers' club is to discharge this duty of reception of this delegation of Georgia farmers with the eyes of the whole nation, and the United States upon them, and the proceedings of that day, September 14, will be published in every morning paper of the 15th, and will be reproduced and discussed in all the agricultural journals. Every man and woman member of the club, and really all the farmers of the county, should take active interest in this affair. It should be a matter of pride for the Miami Valley to make a good showing of her products and people that day.

VIENNA A GROWING TOWN.

A New Bank Building—Other Work Going On.

VIENNA, Ga., August 26.—[Special.]—Ground will be broken this week for the erection of the Vienna bank building. The brick are arriving daily, and this new and very important enterprise will soon be fully under way. The bank stock is nearly all taken, and within the next few days a board of directors, president and cashier will be elected.

Vienna continues to forge ahead in her solid growth and prosperity, which is not dependent on a few migratory sawmills, assured by a large, thickly populated and prosperous farming country on all sides, reaching into Wilcox county on each end, and Sumter on the west. Included in this territory are also thousands of acres of virgin pine timber, unsurpassed anywhere.

Mr. D. H. Lewis is erecting a large two-story mercantile building on the south side of the courthouse square, and Colonel Busbee will shortly build another on Union street, near Third. Several new residences are in process of construction, and it is almost impossible to procure workmen, as they are needed.

The cotton season has opened up lively, and the staple is being rapidly marketed, over sixty bales having arrived to date. The first bale brought 123 cents, and the Vienna market is only a shade below Macon. The bulk of the cotton crop of Dooley county was brought here, and we expect a large increase over last year's receipts.

A building and loan association was organized in Vienna Wednesday. Thirty thousand dollars were subscribed, and a board of directors elected, with J. P. Head president, and W. C. Hamilton secretary and treasurer. This will stimulate building largely, and a fresh impetus will be given to the growth of Vienna.

Captured by the Wheel.

COLUMBUS, Ga., August 26.—[Special.]—The little daughter of Mr. Henry Altman was dangerously hurt this afternoon at her father's ginhouse. She was standing upon the lever of the gin, near the main shaft of the driving wheel. Her head was caught between the arm of the wheel and the brace of the band wheel and compressed within a space of six inches.

Baseball in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Ga., August 26.—[Special.]—The baseballs of Washington beat the Elbertons last Friday eighteen to six. This is the third contest in which Washington is twice victorious.

THE ETOWAH AGRICULTURAL CLUB.

The Barbecue Given by the Oldest Club in the State.

ADAIRSVILLE, Ga., August 26.—[Special.]—On Saturday, August 24th, at Gilliam's spring, four miles south of Kingston, the Etowah Agricultural club held their annual barbecue.

A history of this club may be of interest to the farmers throughout the state. This had its origin in the oldest in the state, and possibly in the south. Just after the late war, when the farmers returned to find the farms gone down, "no fences" prevailed over the whole country. In due time the "Etowah Agricultural club" was organized with Major A. F. Woolley as its president. They framed a constitution and by-laws. They established themselves as a land of brothers. For six years now this club has not failed to meet monthly. It has been the germ from whence has sprung all the clubs of this county, and we may say the same of the whole state. It has furnished the form for their organizations. The purpose is for mutual advancement and experimentation. In other words, it is an experimental farm on a small scale, but on a good one. Each of the members has a plot of land, and in the club, and one familiarly called the "Immortal Twelve," have a certain crop to grow every season. After the death of the club, the land is sold, and he is served to make a report in writing of the manner of preparing the soil, the kind of fertilizer, the amount of work, the kind of work and every other fact that comes through with, and what the crop costs him and what it cost. He is only allowed to plant one acre. Premiums are offered for the best yield to the acre, and for the best net gain. Twenty-five dollars is a standing one for the best acre in cotton open to all. Two thousand six hundred pounds has been raised. The members of this club feel a pride in this work, and well they may. Once each year at Gilliam's spring in the month of August, they have their annual barbecue. Each member is allowed to invite so many and no more. When it comes to dinner nothing is too good, can be said. It is served on a long table in the shade of elms, oaks and beech. It was our good fortune to be placed so Mrs. Captain Tom Lyons was a vis.

A notice of the celebration would be incomplete without a mention of Captain Lyons's speech which occurred after dinner. It was full of sparkling points, short but eloquent. In short it was a real boiled down. It will be remembered he is president of the Bartow county alliance, though this club has no connection with the alliance, as it is older and not secret order.

A visit was paid Salspeter cave in the afternoon, where the remains of gun powder manufacturing remains to this day.

BRUNSWICK'S HAPPENINGS.

An Attack of Vertigo—Fell From a Scaffold Glyn's Exposition.

BRUNSWICK, Ga., August 26.—[Special.]—Mr. Short, representative of P. F. Collier, publisher, fell down the steps at Symmes & Barnes's office today. He had an attack of vertigo.

A negro workman named Prince, fell from a scaffold today, breaking his thigh.

The boat which contained a party of gentlemen attending the Exposition, headed by Clark Howell, Sr., struck a sand bar a few miles out from the city yesterday. They had to wait several hours for a vessel to pull them out.

It is probable that the Clyde line of steamers will be put on between here and New York. This is another victory for Brunswick.

A line of steamers to carry fruits between this place and Central America is an assured fact. This line will place Brunswick in direct competition with New York and New Orleans.

Work on Glyn's exposition ship is being pushed rapidly. The dimensions are from end flying beam to spanker beam thirty-five feet, length, Keelson, twenty-four feet lower, yards eleven feet. The ship will sail for Atlanta on time.

JIM HUFF IN JAIL.

He Has a Lively Time Keeping Out of the Way of Lynchers.

ATHENS, Ga., August 26.—[Special.]—Jim Huff, the man who struck Mr. Laurie Walker, of Lexington, with a hoe, causing his death, is now in Clarke county jail. He was arrested in South Carolina, Friday, by Deputy Sheriff J. H. Oglesby, and was brought to Lexington and put in jail. Excitement was already at a fever heat against Huff, and it was only increased by the fact that he was in jail in his midst. Lynching was talked of, and the officers thought it best to remove him at once. So they slipped out of Lexington very quietly with him and in a short while, arrived in Athens and lodged him safely behind the bars of Clarke county jail. Sheriff Ware anticipates no trouble, although it is currently rumored that a mob will be up in Lexington, and will quickly take Huff and take him to a bad farm. His brother tried to kill Colonel Dick Taylor a short while since, and his cousin attempted the life of a Mr. Young near Lexington a year or two ago.

A ROMANTIC MARRIAGE.

Which Brings Two Fond Young People Together.

TOCOCA, Ga., August 26.—[Special.]—Quite a romantic marriage occurred this evening at six o'clock, at Providence church, about six miles from here. Miss Timmie Moore, of Clarksville, to Mr. W. M. Kilgo, of this place. Rev. Mr. Jamison officiating.

Mr. Kilgo has been paying his attention for the past two years, but as the young lady's parents objected to the match, the courtship was carried on under difficulties. Miss Moore, however, was true to a long while, and was one of its most popular young ladies. She came to our town on a visit to her many friends last Thursday. Mr. Kilgo is a salesman in the store of Mr. Bright, and is one of Toccoa's rising young men. Nothing was known of the intended marriage until after the ceremony was performed. The news was received with considerable surprise.

BLED TO DEATH.

The Strange Death of Mr. Homer Paris, of Polk County.

POWDER SPRINGS, Ga., August 26.—[Special.]—Near Gray's mill yesterday, Mr. Homer Paris was walking along the road with two or three companions, having in one hand a spring back knife, and threw his hand down and hit himself on the thigh. The blade flew out and cut the femoral artery on the opposite thigh, and he bled to death in a few minutes.

Notes from Abbeville.

ABBEVILLE, Ga., August 26.—[Special.]—Fine rains fell last Saturday night, and yesterday, which were much needed by the farmers.

The town was made quite lively on Friday last by several of the boys getting drunk and painting the town red, so to speak.

Bill Smith in Jail.

SAVANNAH, Ga., August 26.—[Special.]—Bill Smith, a negro, was sent to jail here today on a charge of attempting to rob the mail at Waycross. Smith was caught under a counter in the building with a pistol and hatchet.

The body of M. T. Lewman, who died at the depot last Friday, was sent to his family in Indiana today.

The Dooley County Veterans.

VIENNA, Ga., August 26.—[Special.]—The Dooley County Confederate Veterans' association held its regular meeting here Saturday. There was a large attendance from all parts of the county. They will memorialize the legislature for additional pensions to old soldiers and soldiers' widows and orphans.

Dooley County Camp Meeting.

VIENNA, Ga., August 26.—[Special.]—Dooley county camp meeting opens at Pamelatichie camp ground, near here, Saturday. This is a great yearly event in religious circles, and extensive preparations are being made, as a large attendance is expected from abroad. Parties from a distance will get off the cars at Vienna.

The Columbus Southern Road.

COLUMBUS, Ga., August 26.—[Special.]—It is announced that the Columbus Southern railroad will be open for business as far as Richmond by October 1. The Georgia Midland depot will be enlarged, and the new business given it by the Southern, which will be an important artery in the commerce of the queen city.

THE CENTRAL CITY.

AN ELECTRIC SYSTEM OF RAILROADS TO BE ADOPTED.

Mrs. Cook's Will—The State Tax Rate—The Thief Escaped—Colonel R. D. Locke—A Collision Reported.

MACON, Ga., August 26.—[Special.]—Mr. George Work of Philadelphia writes to General Manager Winners, of the Macon street car company, that he has signed a contract with the Thompson-Houston company to build an electric railway in Macon, conditioned on the city council of Macon granting him the new franchises on certain streets in the city. It is not known whether or not these franchises will be granted which gives to Mr. Work the exclusive right over the same. The council may act tomorrow night.

MRS. COOK'S WILL.

Today the non-captive will of Mrs. Alice Cook was filed for probate in the court of ordinary.

The deceased and her new born baby that was found dead at St. John's home, and buried in the same coffin. It seems that she and her husband parted some time ago. She found refuge in the county hospital. After a short stay, her friends purchased a coffin, and she was given other than a pauper's burial. She left a little property in Chattahoochee county, and some valuables in her trunk. The last year of her life was unfortunate and gloomy.

THE STATE TAX.

For Bibb county for 1888 was $5,610 of one cent per dollar, and $14,410.

The Bibb commissioners were in hopes that the state rate would be lowered for 1889 to at least 30 or 25 and the county rate could then be increased to 70 or 75.

On the contrary, it is so that the state's rate will be increased to 40. The commissioners have memorialized the legislature on the subject, basing their petition on the ground that the county trial has been a heavy expense, a financial burden from which the county needs relief. The policy of the commissioners has been to keep the county state rate as low as possible.

They have pursued this course for several years. As the rate of the state increased that of the county decreased proportionately. Bibb county will need at least $115,000 for the next year. To obtain this sum she will have to increase her rate to 80, making state and county 120. The total taxes realized last year were $84,000. The expense of the Woodfolk trial and greater expenditures on roads requires a larger sum now.

THE THIEF ESCAPED.

Last night about ten o'clock, when Mr. Alex. Reynolds, Sr., went to his room in the second story of his residence on First street, to go to sleep, and as he approached one of the windows opening out on top of the veranda that runs around the house, he thought he espied a figure on the outside. He threw open the blinds and saw a large man in a crouching position with a blanket over his head, who was waiting for a chance when Mr. Reynolds went to bed. Mr. Reynolds stepped back into the room to get a pistol and the thief escaped either by jumping from the second story or by some other means.

AID ON THE STAFF.

Colonel C. M. Wiley, eminent Sir Knight of Pallas, received a letter from Harrison Dugan, chief of staff, stating that on recommendation of the grand commander of the grand commandery of Georgia, Colonel Wiley had been appointed aide on the staff of the grand commander.

At the 24th triennial convocation of the grand commandery at Washington in October next, St. Omer commandery, of Macon, will attend the convocation.

Colonel R. D. Locke has arrived in Macon from Washington City, where he has been since the inauguration of the president. Colonel Locke says it is possible that he will be a candidate for postmaster of Macon at the expiration of Postmaster Wagon's term of office.

While waiting for that auspicious day, the colonel expects to serve as deputy revenue collector of the Macon district, vice Mr. G. A. Cabanis. Colonel Locke says if he does not receive another possible appointment, he will assume the duties of collector next week.

A COLLISION REPORTED.

Passenger service on the Macon morning report a collision yesterday afternoon at Hampton, between the passenger train which left Macon at 1:40 p. m. for Atlanta and the locomotive and freight train which left Macon at 1:40 p. m. for Atlanta.

The engines went together and both engines jumped. The pilots and headlights of the engines were knocked off and some other damage was done. No one was hurt.

NOTICES SERVED.

Today Sheriff Westcott served on the county commissioners copies of the certiorari in the Louisville bonded case of Mr. Edward Davis. The matter will come up before Judge Gustin at the November term of superior court.

THE ALLIANCE.

Several counties, Bibb and others, met in Macon today and decided to rent the Adams warehouse to store their cotton and sell the same. Captain R. W. Bonner will be manager, and Mr. Barrow will be clerk.

THE STATE FAIR COMMITTEE.

of the Georgia Agricultural society has agreed to offer the following special premiums at the state fair in October next.

For the Holstein-Friesian cow making the best one year butter record, $10.

For the Holstein-Friesian cow making the best milk record, $10.

1. For the Holstein-Friesian cow making the best one year butter record, first premium $100 and gold medal of the Holstein-Friesian association, valued at $50. Second premium $50.

2. For the Holstein-Friesian cow making the best one year milk record, first premium $100 and gold medal of the Holstein-Friesian association, valued at $50. Second premium $50.

3. For the Holstein-Friesian cow winning the first premium for butter in competition open to other breeds, a premium of $10.

4. For the best herd of Holstein-Friesian cattle exhibited at the state fair of each of the three years ending 1890, a premium of $100.

Premiums must be awarded by the management of the fair, and the winners having in mind the president or secretary will be required, before payment of any premium is made.

ANOTHER GROWING TOWN.

McRAE Beginning to Build Up in a Lively Way.

McRAE, Ga., August 26.—[Special.]—McRae is booming. In sixty days the S. A. and M. railroad will land passengers at this place. Land is cheap here, and building lots can be bought at very moderate prices. New buildings are going up and almost every day, sees some new one started.

Everyone is jubilant over the bright prospects of the town. The little town, with pure water and sea breezes, who would not like to live in McRae. W. B. Folsom & Co. are erecting a beautiful brick store, and before the autumn leaves, more will follow their example in improvements in different ways.

Every day finds some one locating in our town and it does not take him long to catch the drift of the McRae boom, and to become all good citizens to our midst. Keep your eye on McRae.

Death of Mrs. Gookins.

COLUMBUS, Ga., August 26.—[Special.]—This morning at half past five o'clock Mrs. Mary C. Gookins, widow of the late Judge Samuel B. Gookins, of Terra Haute, Ind., died at the Columbus Southern depot.

She was the mother of Mrs. George C. Dunt, and has resided in this city for about two years, where she has endeared herself to the hearts of all who have had the privilege of her acquaintance. At three o'clock this afternoon Judge and Mrs. Day left with the remains for Terra Haute.

The funeral will take place on Wednesday next at the Columbus Southern depot, of which the deceased has been a member for nearly fifty years.

The Caterpillar Abroad.

COVINGTON, Ga., August 26.—[Special.]—The caterpillars have appeared in some sections of this county and are doing considerable damage to the cotton. In this exception the cotton in the field is being eaten and the prospect is good for an unusually large crop. It is, however, about two weeks later than usual.

THE DECATUR SCHOOL.

The Arrangements Completed for a First-class School.

DECATUR, Ga., August 26.—[Special.]—Rev. F. H. Gaines returned home Friday from Virginia, where he was commissioned to select and contract with teachers for the Decatur Female seminary. He succeeded in obtaining the services of Miss Hopkins, of Warm Springs, Va., late assistant principal in the "Valley Seminary" at Waynesboro, Va.

She will be at the head of the Decatur Female Seminary and will be assisted by Miss Cook, of Augusta county, Va. Both of these ladies are highly accomplished teachers of considerable experience. The elegant "Allen house" a large well constructed building, in a beautiful grove fronting the Georgia railroad, has been leased for three years and will be at once thoroughly furnished and grouped for class rooms and the boarding department. A thoroughly competent matron will be in charge of the boarding department, under the direct supervision of the Misses Hopkins and Cook, who will reside in the building. The music and art department will be in charge of accomplished ladies. The seminary will open between 15th and 25th of September. There is no more eligible place in the state for the building of a first-class school for the education of young ladies than Decatur. With a most healthful climate, pure water, good churches and refined society, and its convenient location, it is a good school in such a place and under such auspices is bound to succeed. A full attendance from the town is already guaranteed and it is expected that great numbers from other parts of the county will be sent there to send their daughters to so thorough a school, so conveniently located to Atlanta.

THE MILITARY SPIRIT IN CEDARTOWN.

A Company to be Organized as Soon as an Order is Obtained.

CEARTOWN, Ga., August 26.—[Special.]—Cedartown took another step forward this afternoon. A splendid military company will soon be fully organized, armed and uniformed. At Leake's hall, this afternoon, fifty-eight names of the best men of the town were enrolled as members of the military company. Captain John D. Waddell acted as chairman of the meeting, and Dr. England stated the object of the meeting, S. S. Pearce was made secretary. The crowd were very enthusiastic and soon our boys will be marching to the head of the parade, dressed in their blue suits and brass buttons. Captain Waddell will call upon Adjutant General Kell the latter part of the week to procure arms and an order for the election of officers for the company.

JOE BURGE'S STORY.

He Claims That Two Men Tried to Assassinate Him.

CEARTOWN, Ga., August 26.—[Special.]—Joe Burge, colored, who farms three miles from this place, came to town greatly excited and stated that while he was splitting rails in the woods two men named Lockridge attempted to assassinate him. Slipping up behind him, he discovered them in ten feet of him, when they assaulted him with a pistol and rocks. Burge ran for life, crying murder, and escaped with one severe blow from a rock in the shoulderblade, disabling him in one arm. He says the men had assaulted him without cause for an old matter. Burge swore out a warrant against them for assault with intent to murder; also against one for carrying concealed weapons. The trial will develop the truth of the matter if the men are arrested.

REVIVAL IN FAIRBURN.

Twelve Converts the Result of a Baptist Meeting.

FAIRBURN, Ga., August 26.—[Special.]—Rev. Alvin Culpepper baptized twelve converts at this place, here yesterday. A very large crowd was in attendance. The protracted meeting at the Baptist church closed today. Rev. Culpepper's sermon today at 11 o'clock was a grand one. Eleven young ladies and one man constituted the converts. Rev. Culpepper unbaptized some of his church. He said he had heard that some of the members had signed a petition to have barrooms return to this town. He said it made him bleed to hear it. He told of the evil effects of liquor, described the heart pains of wives and of mothers, and said he had rather see the men and women sober and happy, than to see them many drunken husbands.

The South Brunswick Terminal.

WAYNESVILLE, Ga., August 26.—[Special.]—The South Brunswick Terminal railroad commenced laying steel rail at this place today. The first spike was driven by Mr. W. C. Wilson, agent and operator of the Brunswick and Western railroad, at this place, the spike being rapidly and successfully carried on under the supervision of Mr. W. E. Trench.

The Electric System in Augusta.

AUGUSTA, Ga., August 26.—[Special.]—President Patrick Walsh and Director Frank Fleming, of the Augusta street railroad, returned today from a tour of the eastern cities where electric railways are in use. They made a thorough inspection of the system, and are satisfied in every way. Work will begin on the Augusta electric railway as soon as the city council gives its permission.

A Case of Mistaken Identity.

CEARTOWN, Ga., August 26.—[Special.]—If Tom Campbell, who killed Joe Halsey, Rockmart, four years ago, has been arrested Polk county officials know nothing of it. Certain it is he is not behind the bars of our jail. It must be a case of mistaken identity.

Rome's First Bale.

ROME, Ga., August 26.—[Special.]—The first bale of cotton received in Rome was consigned to Rounsaville & Bro. It was raised in Talladega county, Ala. It was sold at the cotton exchange today, and brought 124 cents per pound.

Thomsonville's Electric Lights.

THOMSONVILLE, Ga., August 26.—[Special.]—The electric lights in Thomsonville were turned on half past seven. A large crowd are out to see it, many witnessing the light of the future for the first time.

INCREASE OF TAX RATE.

THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS TAKE IMPORTANT ACTION.

They increase the County Tax Rate From Thirty Cents to Thirty-Five—Some Improvements That Are to Be Made.

Thirty-five cents on the hundred is the county tax rate for 1889, and that is an increase of five cents on last year's rate. The rate was fixed at a meeting of the county commissioners yesterday morning. The board met at eleven o'clock, and all the members except Dr. H. L. Wilson were present.

Besides fixing the tax rate, several other matters were acted upon, but the raise in the rate was the most important measure the board has adopted for some time.

The action of the commissioners was generally unexpected, and will be heard with surprise, as it is well known that there has been a very large increase in the county's taxable property.

But while the wealth of Fulton county has increased her necessities have multiplied, and it was to keep pace with these demands that the increase was made.

A new wing is to be added to the courthouse, a substantial iron bridge will be put across the Chattahoochee river, and a new convict barracks will be erected. These alone will cost in the neighborhood of $35,000.

And then there are other additional expenses that will have to be met.

And Fulton county will have to furnish the funds.

The statement of the county clerk showed that if the thirty cent rate of last year was continued there would be a deficit of about $5,000, and the board decided to fix the rate of taxation as to cover this.

Here is the clerk's statement of the county's resources and liabilities:

EXPENSES FOR 1888.

Current expenses	$121,850 00
Ten per cent usual increase	12,185 00
Maneul soldiers fund	100 00
Maneul soldiers fund	1,760 00
Insolvent list	10,000 00
Total	$145,944 00

REVENUE WITHOUT TAXES.

Unal amount not in digest	$ 1,000 00
Insolvents to pay	3,000 00
Ten per cent added to last year	12,185 00
Liquor license, etc.	2,100 00
Total	$18,285 00

According to this $127,659 must be raised by taxation, and although the tax receiver's digest shows an increase of nearly $4,500,000 in the taxable valuation of the county's property at last year's rate, the revenue would be only $119,945. At a fifty-cent rate on the one hundred dollars, the revenue would be $139,739.96, an excess of the amount actually necessary to meet the visible demands.

There was considerable discussion over the increased rate. Mr. Hunsicker opposing it. He was willing to make the rate 35¢, but thought that was high enough.

On Mr. Garrett's motion to make it 35 cents, the vote stood two to one for the increase.

This makes the total tax on Atlanta property $2.25 on the one hundred dollars, forty cents being the state rate.

Mr. Kiser wanted the name of the county alma house changed to the county farm. He thought the institutions usefulness was handicapped by its repulsive name, but Mr. Hunsicker and Mr. Garrett were of the opinion that a change of name would be of very little value.

Colonel Adair favored the change, but opinion was equally divided and the question was finally postponed.

Fulton County Barracks was the title given to the new convict camp, and the name of the county changing was changed to the Fulton County Public Works.

A committee on finances was created, and the committee on public works was instructed to have a telephone put out to the barracks.

The sheriff has in his possession deeds to certain property which has been sold for taxes, but has never been taken possession of by the county attorney. The sheriff was adopted calling upon the attorney to show why he has not taken possession of this property.

The board then adjourned.

FACTS ABOUT CATERPILLARS.

Something About the Pest That Destroys Cotton—The Stages of its Growth.

Foreseeing that the cotton crop might be attacked by caterpillars, Mr. Walter De Wolf, of the agricultural department, has made a study of these pests and he is able to give some interesting facts about them.

"These cotton worms," he said yesterday, "are the most prolific creatures in the world. There are only a dozen of them in a cotton patch and at the end of three weeks there will be millions. They begin as moths. One female will lay from four to six hundred eggs. These hatch in three days. They are then little skeletons of worms, but they quickly attain their growth. Then each one weaves up and becomes a moth and is prepared to lay six hundred more eggs. The whole growth from an egg to a moth takes three weeks. All the time the worms are growing they eat surprisingly, and generally attack the plants when they are full of sap. In dry seasons they appear first in the bottom lands, but during wet seasons, like the present, they attack the highlands as quickly as the bottom lands. The worst enemy of the worms are ants. These small insects attack the worms and kill thousands of them. If enough ants could be placed in a field it would soon be cleared of worms. Heavy rain storms also kill quantities, and constant working also does great good."

HE SECURED HIS MONEY.

Southern Mutual Building and Loan Association.

It is gratifying to us to note the progress of any of Atlanta's institutions. But the success of the "Southern Mutual" is especially so. We also call attention to the fact, that this organization, that with such a board of officers this institution must succeed. Their success has been beyond the expectation of their officers. Nearly $1,000,000 of the capital stock of this association has already been subscribed, and every mail brings additional subscriptions from all over the southern states. They are now on a firm, solid financial basis. The following letter shows their method of dealing with their stockholders:

OFFICE OF J. C. VALENTINO, BRUNSWICK PLANNING MILLS, BRUNSWICK, GA., August 15, 1889.

Gentlemen:—I desire to acknowledge the receipt from your association of the local $100,000 hundred dollars ($2,400) which has been granted and paid me, and to express my thanks for the promptness and courtesy of your office in the granting of this loan. I have been paid much more than I expected, as there are usually so many vexatious delays and annoyances in securing money from building and loan associations, and I suppose there would necessarily be delay in a loan of this amount.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

ON MONDAY NEXT THE LITTLE ONES RETURN TO BOOKS.

Some Points of Progress Connected With the School System of Atlanta, and Some Information in Regard to Vaccination and Other Requirements.

"I have no busy writing tickets that I hardly have time to talk," said Major Slaton, superintendent of public schools, yesterday, "but I want THE CONSTITUTION to disabuse the minds of the people on some points concerning the entry of children."

"In what way do you mean?"

"Well, here is an advertisement which speaks for itself. All children who have not been in school in the city, must present a certificate of successful vaccination from Dr. Roach, and that is all."

"What does such a certificate cost?"

"If Dr. Roach does the vaccinating himself, it costs one dollar. If it has been done by somebody else, Dr. Roach, as a member of the sanitary committee of the board, must have proof of the fact, and then the certificate costs nothing."

"Has there been much complaint about the fee for vaccinating?"

"Yes, there has been considerable complaint. We require it as a protection for the children. We cannot afford to accept the certificate of any and everybody, as it is a measure that is of vital importance to the well-being of the schools, and we must have a showing from responsible persons before we can grant the applicant a permit to enter the schools."

"Is there any solution of the problem?"

"I am willing, if the board will concur, to do it. Let every physician who desires to vaccinate the children of families, whose practice he does, come here and register his name in a book kept for the purpose, just like a book kept in banks for the identification of persons who may wish to do business with the bank."

"What use would that serve?"

"Why, when a physician operates in the city, I could then compare the signatures and attest of the genuineness of the certificate. It would be perfectly willing to admit the child. You see, before we adopted this rule, the father, some drug clerk, or anybody else would write a certificate, and when we investigated the matter we found that there were a large number of children in the schools who had never been successfully vaccinated."

"Did you ever have any trouble from small-pox?"

"No, on the contrary, it was the freedom from disease among the pupils of the public schools that allayed the fear of the people when the epidemic occurred some years ago. Every day we published in THE CONSTITUTION that the schools were going on uninterrupted, and that there was no confidence of the people and prevented a widespread panic."

"How many children were in school last year?"

"Seven thousand, three hundred and forty-six."

"And you will have a large increase this year?"

"Yes, a very large increase. They are coming in rapidly every day. Of course the older dated tickets will have the preference in seats; and those who come first will stand the best chance. I have some plans about being able to do this at the late comers."

"Have you any provision for the increase?"

"Yes, we have seven more white and nine more colored teachers than we had last year. Then we have enlarged and increased the seating capacity of Ivy street school, Walker street school and Howard street school. The new one in popular districts. We hope to be able to accommodate all the children; but as I said before, those who come first are best. I am here every day, and there is no charge for entering children, except as I stated above, where Dr. Roach does the vaccinating himself. The child has only to pay its board and furnish its own books. That is all."

ATTRACTIONS FOR THE EXPOSITION.

The Wild West Will Be Here in All Its Glory—Daring Balloons.

Mr. S. H. Cohen returned yesterday from Philadelphia. During his trip north he secured a number of attractions for the Piedmont exhibition which would be worth traveling a long distance to see.

Mr. Cohen has arranged for the visitors to the exhibition to have a sight of the wild life of the frontiers. A band of cowboys and Indians will show how they live in the rolling prairie. They will bring their bucking ponies along and will give practical illustrations of how they should be ridden. Some of the great acrobats will also be at the exposition and will make the blood of the spectators run cold by ascending to a height of three or four thousand feet in a balloon and then descending with the aid of a parachute.

Mr. Cohen said last night that the applications for space are coming in faster than they can be attended to. Yesterday twelve applications were received. Among them was one from Mr. Cohen asking for a hundred feet. Glynn county also wishes to be represented. Christian-Moore, the Cincinnati brewers, have decided to spend $15,000 on their exhibit, and will make the largest display of machinery from Chicago. Messrs. Stull, Lilsberger & Co., of Virginia, will reproduce the exhibit which they had at the centennial in Philadelphia, and will show how tobacco is grown and manufactured.

"Altogether," concluded Mr. Cohen, in speaking of it, "this will be the greatest exposition ever given in the south."

Under the auspices of Ladies Auxiliary, Prof. Mark B. Reed, of the University of Georgia, will give an evening of readings and recitations at the Young Men's Christian Association building next Friday night. The program will be varied with music, vocal and instrumental, and will be supervised by some of the best local talent. The evening promises to be one of rare enjoyment. The admission fee will be only 25 cents. Tickets will be placed on sale at a number of prominent stores tomorrow, a list of which will be given to-morrow.

THE REASON WHY

A. L. Cuesta's Cigars Take the Lead in the Home Market.

We never deceive our customers. When we put a sign on the market, we always maintain its full standard of excellence. We don't charge an extra profit to insure risks such as are taken by most of our customers to keep any of them that are not satisfactory to their trade. We employ only first-class Cuban hand cigar makers, never make use of machines, wooden moulds or lead forms, nor do we use artificial flavors of any kind. We invite smokers of pure Havana cigars to call at our factory and see for themselves how cigars are made and how the tobacco is prepared according to the Cuban method of manufacturing.

THE GRAND ARMY.

MITCHELL POST SENDS GREETINGS TO THE EX-CONFEDERATES.

Resolutions Adopted by O. M. Mitchell Post, G. A. R., and Commander-in-Chief Gorse Done Reply to Them.

At a meeting of O. M. Mitchell Post, Grand Army of the Republic, which was held August 15th, it was decided to express the sympathy of the organization with the Confederate Veterans' association by adopting a set of resolutions, and also by contributing twenty-five dollars toward the confederate veterans' home.

A few days later the committee called on Governor Gordon and presented him with a check and the following communication:

HEADQUARTERS OF O. M. MITCHELL POST, No. 1, Department of Georgia, G. A. R., Regular Meeting, August 15, 1889. General John B. Gordon, Commander-in-Chief Confederate Veterans' association of the State of Georgia, Sir: The members of the O. M. Mitchell Post No. 1, department of Georgia, learn with pleasure of the movement to organize a state association of ex-confederate soldiers, and desire to tender to you and to the brave men of your organization our congratulations on the perfection of the association that promises so much of future welfare and happiness to them.

We desire to express to you and them, in full measure, our sincere and equal interest and sympathy that is felt by every old soldier towards another, and that has been described as the "Freemasonry of Old Soldiership."

The committee conveying to you this memorial are directed to hand to you here with a check for twenty-five dollars or more, subscription towards the building of the "confederate home," and to state that as taxpayers and citizens of Georgia, we trust that the present legislature will take such action as shall so beautifully support that institution that hereafter it may not only be a home for those who need it, but may be an ornament to the State.

With the heartiest good wishes to yourself personally, and to your organization, we beg to remain most respectfully your friends.

W. M. Scott, C. T. Watson, W. M. Scott, C. T. Watson, Thomas Kirk, Ira N. Swartz, Governor Gordon.

Governor Gordon forwarded the check to Mr. Henry W. Grady, and yesterday sent the following reply to the committee:

THIS GOVERNOR'S OFFICE, ATLANTA, GA., August 20, 1889.—Dr. J. W. Stone, C. T. Watson, W. M. Scott, B. S. Eggleston, Thomas Kirk, Ira N. Swartz, O. M. Mitchell Post, No. 1, G. A. R., Atlanta, Ga.—Gentlemen: I have delayed answering yours of the 15th last, because of unusually pressing public engagements. I am glad to hear of the public expression of your interest in the confederate veterans of Georgia and of myself individually, I beg to extend to you my thanks and assurance of appreciation of your generous words of encouragement and liberal donation to the confederate home.

Cordially reciprocating the magnanimous sentiments contained in your letter, and with firm conviction that the mutual respect felt for each other by the brave men of the two armies will increase as the motives which prompt each are better understood, I am, sincerely yours,

J. B. GORDON.

The act passed by the legislature transferring Dooley county from the Oconee circuit to the Southwest circuit, and retaining in it the solicitor-general and the term of office expired, has remained in the governor's office several days while an argument as to its constitutionality was heard. It was stated yesterday that the governor had found the bill in accordance with the constitution, and it will be signed immediately.

A MURDEROUS ASSAULT.

Late yesterday evening the old man Richmond Jones, colored, who lives in the rear of Dr. Connel's drug store, on Wheat street, was the victim of a murderous assault.

George Washington, a young negro who lives in the same locality, was the assailant. Washington has been in poor health for some time, and Jones lent him a few dollars to pay his rent. Yesterday evening he went to collect the money.

He asked for the money for it and the latter replied that he had been ill for some time and not been earning any wages.

Jones remarked that it was a just debt, and Washington ought to have paid it some time ago.

Washington picked up a rock and while Jones was looking at him, he threw a stone at the old man. He then drew his knife and started to follow up the blow.

"Don't let him hit me any more," cried the old man, and he fled. Jones followed him and the fight ran up to interfere.

Washington rushed away and the old man sank to the ground.

Fatrolm Jones and Helms captured Washington and locked him up.

Jones was taken into a drug store, where Dr. Connel examined the wound. He found that there was no fracture, but a severe concussion of the brain, caused by the blow on the left temple. Jones was taken to his home, and is in a critical condition.

Slightly Hurt.

Mr. Slimm, who has charge of the construction department of the Edgewood avenue electric street railway, was walking through the car house, when his foot slipped and he fell. His head came in contact with a beam and he was somewhat bruised. He will be out in a few days.

Contagious Blood Diseases.

Ulcers, sores, pimples, itch, salt rheum, etc., are evidences of contagious blood disease. It is manifestly a duty to eradicate blood poison from the system by a use of B. B. (Botanic Blood Pain), thus enabling the sore place to heal, and thereby removing all possibility of other members of the family becoming likewise affected. B. B. is sold at all drug stores, and for book that will convince.

Dr. H. Onlaw, Mt. Olive, N. C., writes: "I had running sores on my shoulders and arms. One bottle of B. B. cured me entirely."

J. Johnson, Belmont Station, Miss., writes: "B. B. has worked on me like a charm. My head and body were covered with sores, and my hair came out but B. B. healed me quickly."

W. J. Kiln, Hitchens, Texas, writes: "B. B. has cured me of a large ulcer on my leg that doctors and all other medicine could not cure."

M. J. Rossman, a prominent merchant of Greensboro, Ga., writes: "I know of several cases of blood disease speedily cured by B. B. B. Two bottles cured a lady of only twenty-one years."

W. C. Bismore & Co., Macey, Ga., writes: "B. B. is curing Mr. Robert Ward of blood poison effected one of the most wonderful cures that ever came to our knowledge."

THEY DO NOT SPEAK.

THE MEMBERS OF THE CHORUS AND SUB-CHOIR OF A CHURCH.

The Wheat Street Baptist Church, Colored, is torn into factions, so members of the choir claim—jealousies of the choir.

The Wheat street colored Baptist church is no longer the abode of peace. It is a house divided against itself. Two parties are contending for supremacy and the result of the contest cannot be foreseen.

For a long time there have been jealousies and heart burnings among the congregation. The people who for years worked side by side for the good of the church now do not speak as they pass by. All the trouble has grown out of certain changes, which have recently been made. It was the custom of the Wheat street Baptist church to have their principle service Sunday evenings. Particular attention was paid to the music, and the choir was composed of some of the most influential members.

Whenever the church needed any money the choir was always ready to lend its aid, and at one fair the members of it were instrumental in collecting six hundred dollars. Their rendition of the sacred music was considered the very finest, and the congregation was proud of the good work done by them.

It was proposed five months ago to have a service at 11 o'clock Sunday morning and from this change all the trouble has grown. Some members of the choir who sang in the evening found it impossible to be present at the morning services, and a sub-choir was formed from among the sons and daughters of the deacons.

The vaunting ambition of the sub-choir soon became observable. The members of it began by persuading themselves they were more important than the old choir and ended by enlisting the minister and a part of the congregation on their side.

Obvious indications of a coming storm were observable. These indications increased with alarming rapidity until at the evening services of Sunday, August 11th, the hurricane burst in all its fury. On that fatal night Rev. W. H. Tillman, the pastor, rose to preach his sermon. In his opening words he told the congregation that his intention was to preach a sermon for the benefit of the church, kill or cripple who it might. Then, in chaste and elegant language, he went on to say that the old choir was no use; that it never had been any use and it never would be. A flutter was heard behind the curtains in front of the organ at these remarks, but no open demonstration took place.

After the services a meeting of the old choir was held, and it was surmised that possibly the Rev. Tillman might accept their resignation. In any case, they determined to tender it. A delay was caused by the absence of the Rev. Tillman. Yesterday, however, W. C. Dent, president of the choir, came out in a card and publicly announced the choir's resignation, open war will be declared.

Unfortunately, the trouble does not end there. A majority of the congregation recognize the good work done by the choir, and they claim that if the Rev. Tillman accepts the resignation, open war will be declared.

Distress after eating, heartburn, sick headache and indigestion are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It also creates a good appetite for a dime. Call for them.

FLOUR.

America's Finest!

There are thousands of meritorious works of art exhibited for the world's approval, but none indeed are the masterpieces of superlative excellence. The American people have passed judgment on the excellence of the production offered for their choice, and this verdict, whether at the world's great exhibitions, at the bazaar and fairs or at the table at home, has been almost unanimous as to the greatest efforts to produce the finest and richest and best flour that can be made.

Pillsbury's Best

AND Postel's Elegant

Are, we believe, the highest mark ever attained in the production of flour, making the finest, the richest and sweetest bread and pastry. It is true, they cost a little more than the patent flour offered in the market, but it is also true that the difference in quality is worth the difference in price. We offer both these to the merchants of Georgia as the finest and the best, and warrant them absolutely pure.
